

THE GAZETTE.

MONDAY EVENING, MARCH 23.

DEATH BY SUFFOCATION.—On Wednesday of last week a child of Queens, Long Island, named Henry Kleen was attacked by a ferocious dog and badly bitten. The attack of the brute was observed by Messrs. Rowland and Gillen, who drove the dog away and carried Kleen to the postoffice, where his wounds were dressed. He was afterwards removed to his home, where he finally recovered so as to be able to resume his everyday duties. On Thursday last his conduct excited suspicion; he complained of feeling dizzy, which was attended by nausea and vomiting. He entered the lager beer saloon of Mr. Schmidt, and asked for a glass of lager, which when offered he refused to accept, and left the house. Under the horrid he observed a pail of water, which he frantically seized and dashed to the ground. He then started on a run for his residence. He dashed open the door in a paroxysm of terror, yelling with delirium and pain, frothing from the mouth and bleeding from the nose. He continued unrelieved in his sufferings for about an hour, and as he seemed to grow worse it was found necessary to cause his death by smothering him between feather beds. —A. Y. Times.

A BABY is a problem propounded by the world, to be solved by time. Typographically speaking, a short article, with a heading in small caps. Graphically speaking a morsel of humanity, which is generally the admiration of one sex and the aggravation of the other. Philosophically speaking moral lessons in long clothes, set before us to remind the rest of what they once have been, and to worry the irritable old bachelor.
